bash - Movement

Ctrl + A
go to the start of the command line

Ctrl + E
go to the end of the command line

Ctrl + XX
(toggle) beginning of line/cursor position

Alt + B
previous word begin

Alt + F
next word end

Ctrl + F
forward one character

Ctrl + B
back one character

Letters do NOT need to be uppercase

bash - Manipulation

Alt + C
from cursor, capitalize to end of word

Alt + U
from cursor, uppercase to end of word

Alt + L
from cursor, lowercase to end of word

Alt + T
transpose word with previous word

Ctrl + T
transpose character with previous character

Letters do NOT need to be uppercase

bash - Command Control

Ctrl + L
clear screen

Ctrl + S
stops screen output (for verbose commands)

Ctrl + Q
allow screen output (undo Ctrl+S)

Ctrl + C
terminate command

Ctrl + Z
suspend command/send to background (use fg to bring forward)

Letters do NOT need to be uppercase

bash - Command Recall

Ctrl + R
search history backward

Ctrl + G
escape from history search mode

Ctrl + P
previous command in history (walk back)

Ctrl + N
next command in history (walk forward)

Alt + .
last word of previous command

Letters do NOT need to be uppercase

bash - Cut/Paste/Delete

Ctrl + U
from cursor, delete to start of line

Ctrl + K
from cursor, delete to end of line

Ctrl + W
from cursor, delete to start of word

Alt + D
from cursor, delete to end of word

Ctrl + D
delete character under cursor

Ctrl + H
delete character before cursor

Ctrl + Y
after cursor, paste cut/deleted text

Letters do NOT need to be uppercase

bash - Bang (!) Commands

!!
run last command

!foo
run most recent command starting with 'foo'

!foo:p
print most recent command starting with 'foo'

!$
last word of previous command (Alt + .)

!*
previous command without last argument

!*:p
print previous command without last argument